- 1.) Plaintiff is currently incarcerated at S.C.I. Somerset.
- 2.) Plaintiff is unlearned in the law.
- 3.) The prison limits the time and access that each inmate may have to the law library, due to the overcrowding.
- 4.) The defendant's will suffer no prejudice by the court granting plaintiff an enlargement of (60) sixty days, in which to prepare and file a motion to vacate judgement or order.
- 5.) Plaintiff needs the requested enlargement of time to conduct the necessary legal research in which to adequately perfect the pleading.
- 6.) Plaintiff states that the facts set forth in the foregoing documents are true and correct, and made subject to the penalties of perjury.

Wherefore, plaintiff respectfully moves this honorable court to enter an order, granting plaintiff an enlargement of time in which to file a motion to vacate judgement or order, and such other relief as the court deems appropriate and fit.

Respectfully Submitted:

APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF COURT TO FILE AND PROCEED ON APPEAL IN FORMA

PAUPERIS AND FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

To the Honorable Maurice B. Cohill, Judge of the above said court:

And now, this 21st day of December, 2005, comes Plaintiff, Charlton E. Jennings, Pro Se, respectfully files the foregoing document and reprents:

- 1.) that plaintiff is currently incarcerated in S.C.I. Somerset.
- 2.) the plaintiff is proceeding Pro se, in the above captioned case.
- 3.) plaintiff's financial condition has not changed since the Honorable court granted him the right to proceed In Forma Pauperis.

4.) the plaintiff wishes to raise the following issues on appeal:

- (1.) Whether the court abused it's discretion in dismissing the plaintiff's civil action, for failure to state a claim. When plaintiff has stated such claims upon which he is intitled to relief.
- (2.) Whether the court erred and abused it's discretion, in failing to proceed with trial after plaintiff successfully defended against the defendant's motion to dismiss/ motion for summary judgement.

5.) the plaintiff is unlearned in law, and the issues involved are complex . Thus, the plaintiff requires the assistance of a qualified attorney to represent him on appeal.

6.) the defendant's will suffer no prejudice.

Wherefore, plaintiff respectfully moves this honorable court to grant him leave to file and proceed on appeal In Forma Pauperis, and to appoint counsel for purposes of appeal.
